1. The Shrine is a small structure, usually made of wood, and is used for the worship of the gods. It is often found in the center of a village or in a forest. The shrine is usually built on a raised platform, and the entrance is often decorated with a small roof. The shrine is usually surrounded by a fence, and the area around the shrine is often kept very clean. The shrine is usually used for the worship of the gods, and the people who live in the village or in the forest will often go to the shrine to pray for good luck or to thank the gods for their help.

Dear Sir

I beg to introduce to you the bearer Prof. Dr. Itô of Japan who is travelling in India to study the ancient temple architecture. I shall be obliged if you will kindly get him a good bullock cart or other conveyance to go to Kalesid and also arrange to the point of Kalesid to attend to all his wants. He has no objection to take native vegetarian food. At Kalesid I hope you will make him comfortable. He will probably stay only a few hours at Kalesid. Perhaps you might be able to send a picnic with him.

Yours faithfully
H. J. Bhattacha.

Dear Sir

The bearer is Professor Dr. Itô of Japan who is travelling in India to study the architecture of ancient temples. I shall be glad if you will be good enough to give him help to Dr. Itô and make him stay at Behns pleasant.

Yours faithfully,
Jones

Dear Sir

The bearer is Professor Dr. Itô of Japan who is travelling to study the architecture of ancient temples. Please give him any help during his stay at Behns.
